"Reckless Allegations"

FUSILIER MORGAN ACQUITTED

CHIEF JUSTICE'S CRITICISM

"I will say this, that there is not the slightest foundation in my considered judgment for any one of the allegations that have been deliberately and recklessly brought against you. So far as I am concerned, you leave this Court with an absolutely clean record. You are discharged and you may go."

These words uttered by the Chief Justice, Sir Athol MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions yesterday afternoon restored Fusilier William Clifford Morgan, of the Royal Welch Fusiliers, to his freedom and honour.

Morgan, who was defended by Mr. Leo D'Almada, jun., instructed by Mr. G. S. Ford, pleaded not guilty to a charge of rape of a Chinese girl, aged 18 years, on the hillside at Lai-chikok on September 18.

At the conclusion of the Crown case, Mr. D'Almada submitted that there was no case to go to the jury. His Lordship agreed and directed the jury to return a formal verdict of not guilty, which they did.

The following jury was empanelled to hear the case:—Messrs. H. Nish (foreman), Kwok Kiam Seng, S. Kamemura, C. F. de Rozario, M. Berrux, V. T. Low and N. M. Simeby.

The complainant was Li Fuk Lin, alias Li Yuk Ying.

CASE EXPLAINED

Mr. E. H. Williams, Assistant Attorney General, for the Crown, said that the girl was adopted when quite small and had lived with her adopted mother since except for occasions when she resided with her grandmother and other friends. She was at one time fixed with the ambition of becoming a cinema actress.

For some weeks prior to September 18, the girl went to Lai-chikok for bathing and it was there that she met the defendant who approached her in the water and offered to teach her to swim. She agreed. They met almost daily at the beach. He was usually in company with friends and the girl was sometimes alone and sometimes with friends. She went for walks with Morgan and on one occasion he took her to the Alhambra Theatre. She had a basket which was kept in the cafe next door and defendant wrote his name on a slip of paper which was placed in the basket. This paper was kept by the girl on retrieving her basket after the show.

On September 18, the girl was bathing at Lai-chikok when the accused came with some friends. Morgan invited her to go for a walk up the hillside. The girl was wearing her bathing costume and the accused was wearing khaki shorts and a white singlet. On reaching the top of the hill they sat down and Morgan kissed her. He began to pull down her costume

WELCOMED BACK TO PARISH

Rev. Fr. Granelli Expresses Keen Appreciation

LARGE CROWD PRESENT

There was a large congregation present yesterday evening, when following a service at St. Teresa's Church, Kowloon Tong, a reception was held at the Parish Priest, Rev. Fr. A. Granelli, who has just returned to the Colony from a trip to Italy.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME

Dr. B. de Souza, addressing those present said:

Rev. Fathers ladies and gentlemen.—When I was asked to give an address of welcome to Fr. Granelli, my first impulse was not to accept the honour because, being by nature and profession a man of action rather than of words, I could not bring forth that fluency which it is customary to display on such occasions.

Fortunately in the case of Fr. Granelli there is no necessity to have recourse to flowery language to cover deficiencies; in fact, the material is abundant and the only difficulty is to condense in few words what one would like to say.

Father Granelli! When eighteen months ago you left us under medical advice, to recoup your health broken down by excessive work in the mission field, a victim of devotion to duty, our sorrow was deep. It was, however, partly compensated by the thought that you would soon come back amongst us full of renewed vigour. We welcome you to-day heartily, and

ANNUAL HARBOUR RACE

Mak Wai Ming Is First Chinese To Win

BEATS LAWRENCE—FAVOURITE

A sensation in local swimming circles was created yesterday when Mak Wai-ming won the annual harbour race, held under the auspices of the Victoria Recreation Club. He defeated the favourite, Wilfred Lawrence.

Excitement, as the swimmers neared the sea-wall on the Hong Kong side, was terrific.

There was a large crowd of spectators who lined the praya, wall, and disrupted road traffic for a few minutes. Traffic eventually could resume, but drivers had to move cautiously.

Lawrence came in second, followed closely by Lionel Rosa Pereira. Both these swimmers are members of the V.R.C.

The start was made from the Railway Pier, Kowloon shortly after five o'clock. There was a fair entry of competitors.

This race marks the close of the "official" swimming season in Hong Kong.

Mak Wai-ming was also successful in winning the harbour race organised by the Chinese Bathing Club.

Canton, Oct. 21.

Finances of the city will be improved and processes of remonetisation of the local currency will be accelerated as a despatch of one dollar notes amounting to $3,000,000 has been received by the Provincial Bank of Kwangtung from Nanking. These notes have been assigned mainly for conversion purposes, as a large part of the last despatch of $7,000,000 has already been converted. The bank authorities, however, have decided that local notes in hand will not be circulated again, so as to facilitate the unification of the national currency.

Collision-Proof Plan For Britain

Great Britain may be divided up into flying areas, each under the supervision of its own wireless station, and the aeroplanes, like men on a gigantic chess-board, moved from one area to another under the control of the appropriate stations writes the "Morning Post" aeronautical correspondent.

This scheme is part of the plan now being considered by the Maybury Committee on the Development of Civil Aviation in the United Kingdom. It is intended to reduce collision risks in bad weather, and to secure greater regularity and punctuality on the inland lines.

SEDITIONOUS LIBEL ON JEWS

Court Questions About Ritual Murder

PRISON FOR OWNER OF "THE FASCIST"

The hearing was concluded at the Old Bailey, recently of the case in which it was alleged that a seditious libel concerning the Jews had been published in a paper called "The Fascist," according to the London "Morning Post."

Arnold Spencer Leese, aged 57, a retired veterinary surgeon, and Walter Whitehead, aged 62, a printer, pleaded not guilty to six counts.

It was stated that Leese was the proprietor of "The Fascist," and that he wrote articles published in it.

When the Court resumed Leese questioned Inspector Kitchen about an article in "The Fascist," and asked whether a report about the "ritual slaughter of cattle" was not fair comment.

Mr. Justice Greaves-Lord—That is not for the witness to say, but for the jury.

Leese asked the inspector whether he would agree that the article could fairly be described as a scientific, or semi-scientific, article intending to show alleged unpleasant characteristics of Jews due to the fact that they belonged to a certain race of mankind.

The Judge—The jury will not be guided by what this man thinks. They will have to decide what effect the article might have in a city in which there is a large Jewish population side by side with large numbers of Christians.

Leese (to Inspector Kitchen)—When you brought this case were you not under the impression that ritual murder was a thing of the past?—Yes.

You never heard of a case in Kieft in 1912?

The Judge ruled that the question was irrelevant.

Leese—Do you suggest that there is any hint that Jews, who are His Majesty's subjects are accused in this article of perpetrating ritual murders as described?

Inspector Kitchen—No.

CHILD MURDER

He agreed that there were cases of child murder which the police were unable to solve.

Leese—Has it ever occurred to you that some of them may be cases of ritual murder by Jews?

The Judge—If it had, he would be acting without evidence—a thing which he has no right to do.

Later the Judge drew Leese's attention to the irrelevance of certain questions.

Leese—With all respect, my difficulty is that, not being a lawyer, I use common sense.

"That is an answer bordering on insolence," the Judge told Leese, who replied, "It was not meant for insolence."

Leese suggested that Jews boycotted English traders who wished to sell German goods, and asked if that was not an extreme example of partiality to the Jews.

The Judge—There is no question here of partiality to anybody. There is merely the question of equality of citizenship.

Leese (to the Inspector)—Do you know that the Communists deliberately insulted the late King George on Silver Jubilee Day by publishing caricatures and postcards?

The Judge—You know perfectly well that is irrelevant.

Leese, speaking from the dock, opened his defence to the jury.

He said that his object was to obtain good government and achieve reforms. He denied any intention of fomenting ill-will against Jews.

"Bethnal Green at the moment," he said, "is like tinder waiting for the flame to be put to it. I am not going to apply that flame. I suggest that this is not a criminal prosecution but a political prosecution in favour of the Jews."

In his evidence, Leese said that he was English and was a member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons.

SIR O. MOSLEY

"I have never had anything to do with Sir Oswald Mosley," he said. "I regard his advent into the Fascist field as an absolute disaster to the Fascist cause. I have no connection with Germany. I started this movement before I had heard of Hitler, a man whom I greatly admire."

Cross-examined by the Attorney-General, Leese agreed that his policy of segregation involved putting

RED CROSS DILEMMA

Surplus Of Moneys For Ethiopia

DONORS MAY BE CONSULTED

Some £20,000 raised on behalf of ambulance units sent from Britain to Abyssinia during the war is still on deposit in this country. Nobody can say what is to become of it.

The Red Cross Society, which took control of the units shortly after their arrival in Abyssinia, is in charge of the funds. Officials of the Society are at present unable, however, to state what will be the ultimate destination of the money raised, states the London "Morning Post."

They, like many other organizations, are unable to decide whether or not Abyssinia is still entitled to be considered as a Sovereign State. They are awaiting the decision of the League of Nations.

Once the decision is given, a further difficulty will arise. If, as is generally anticipated, it is decided that the Government of Ethiopia has ceased to exist, Red Cross officials will have to consider what is to be done with the money still in their hands.

BALKAN WAR PRECEDENT

Only one recent precedent exists. It is that of the subscription raised during the Balkan War which preceded the Great War. Large sums of money were raised from British subscribers to provide the belligerents with medical services. When the war ended a considerable balance was left.

Subscribers were circulated, and were asked their opinion as to the destination of the balance. The large majority decided that any sums which might still be left standing in their names should be diverted to any other purpose of the Red Cross Society.

The units maintained in Abyssinia on the proceeds of the fund returned to England shortly after the collapse of organised resistance to the Italians. There is, therefore, no purpose to which the money still available may directly be devoted. Moreover, the authorities decline to recognise the Gore "Government" as an authority with which dealings are permissible.

The possibility is that, after the Abyssinian Government is held to have terminated its legal existence, subscribers will be circumscribed. Any who claim that they are entitled to a return of a portion of their subscriptions will be allocated an appropriate sum.

all the Jews on an island, if one could be obtained. The island must be paid for by the Jews and compensation given to natives who might be displaced. He had suggested Madagascar as suitable.

The Attorney-General—And if a Jew escaped from the island and were apprehended, death would be the penalty?—Yes.

Leese denied that the article was an attempt to persuade people to share his abhorrence and hatred of the Jews.

Mr. Justice Greaves-Lord, summing up, referred to a passage in an article that the Jews were not wanted on earth, and asked: "Is that the sort of thing likely to create good feeling between Jew and Gentile?"

He next quoted the passage from the article alleging that the Jews mixed their Passover bread with fresh blood, and commented, "Is that written to remove some matter of discontent or not?"

The Jury found Leese and Whitehead guilty of conspiring together and with other persons unknown to print and publish, in "The Fascist" libellous and scandalous statements concerning the Jews, and with printing that paper on July 1, 1936, containing a scandalous and libellous statement, and so effecting a public mischief.

Verdicts of not guilty were returned on the other counts.

Passing sentence, the Judge said to Leese: "I would have preferred to have inflicted a monetary penalty upon you, but I gather that you prefer the alternative?"

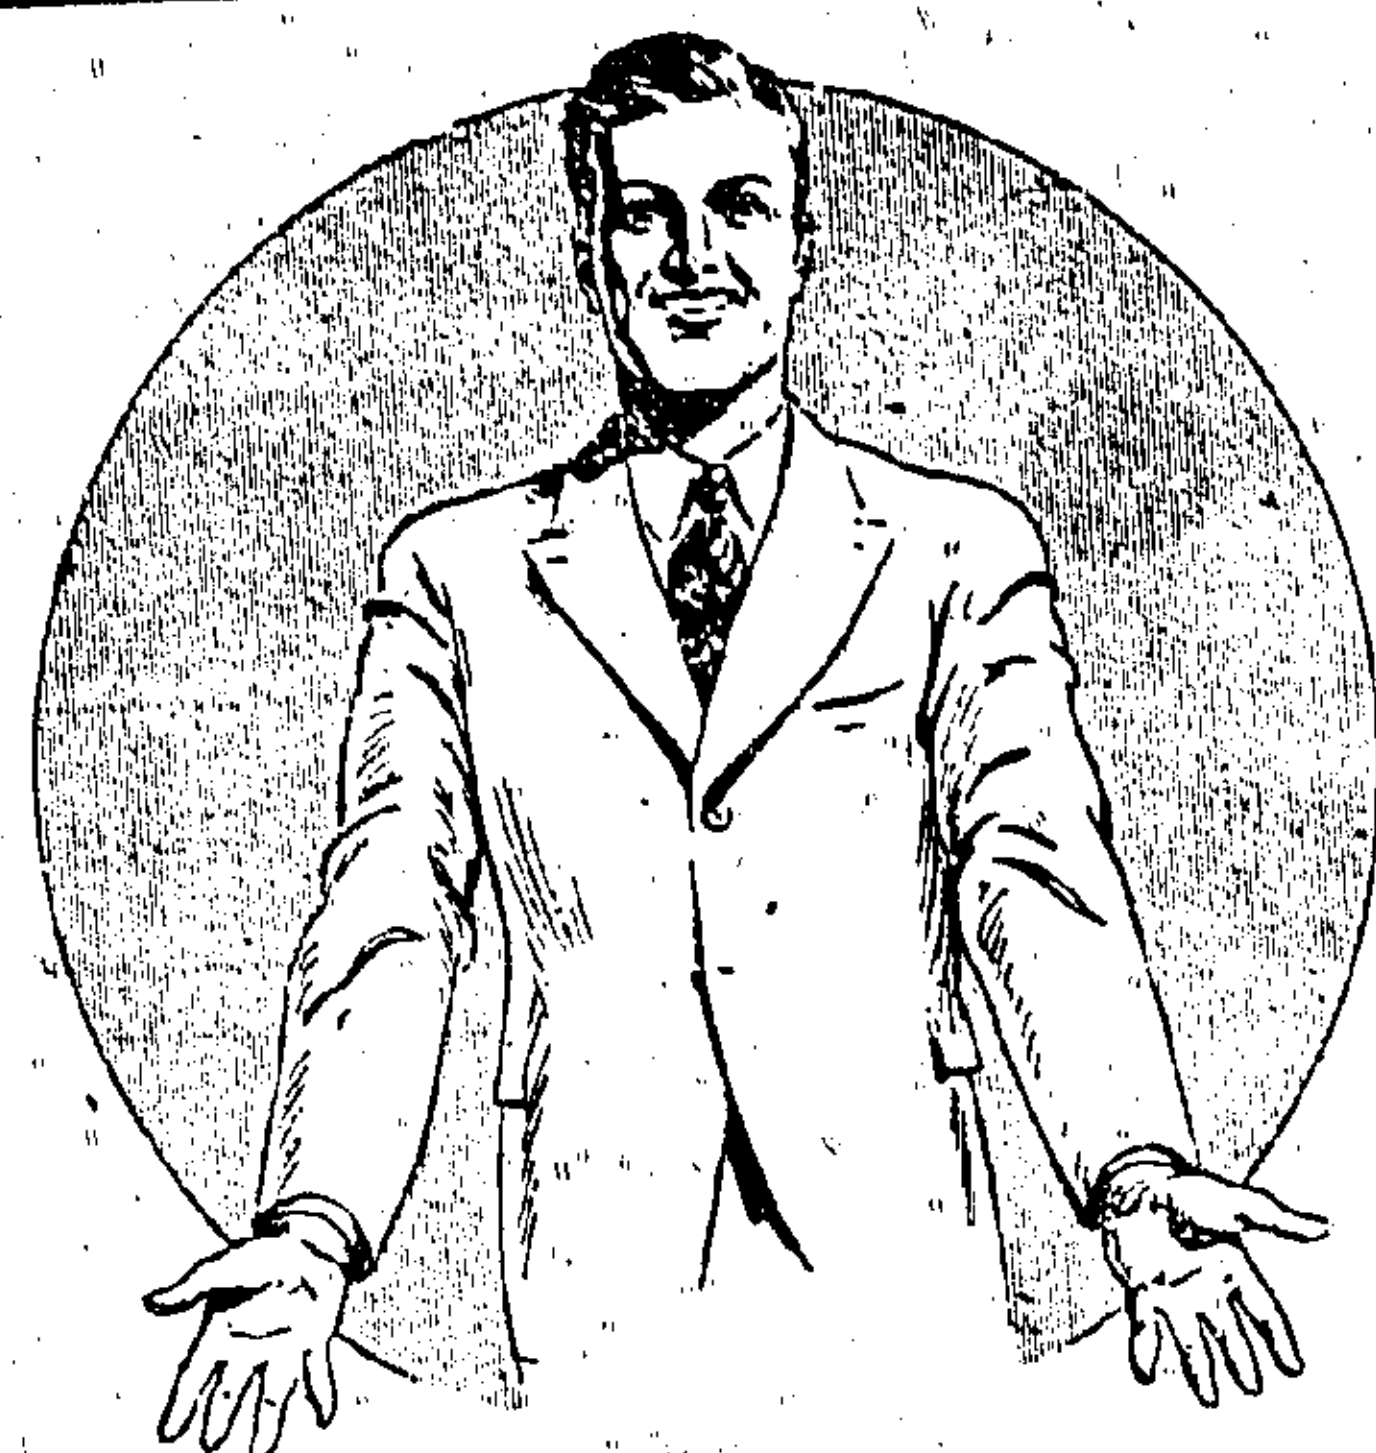

Leese—Yes.

The Judge—Well, perhaps a little meditation will be good for you, and you will meditate in prison for six months.

Whitehead was fined £20, and the Judge said that he would be kept in custody until it was paid.

"And NOW—I'm strong and healthy again!"

"Some time ago I was always feeling tired. I grew very weak and got no pleasure out of life. Then a friend advised me to take Sanatogen and—look at me now! I am fit and vigorous again and feel thoroughly happy."

That world-famous Medical Paper, "The Lancet," writes about the strengthening influence of Sanatogen:

"There is abundant evidence of the value of Sanatogen as a restorative and food, and more particularly in cases of general debility."

When you do not feel so well, start taking Sanatogen. Every chemist sells it and Sanatogen will soon make you thoroughly strong and healthy again, full of youthful vitality.

MEAN THEFT

Chan Chung, 37, unemployed, was charged before Mr. E. Hims-worth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday for larceny of a jade bangle and possession of a silver bangle suspected to have been stolen.

Defendant denied both charges. The complainant, Wong Chan Kit, widow, said that she was going into the Yau-mai Market with a child on her back, defendant came up and stole the baby's bangle.

Accused claimed that he picked up the bangle from the ground. He was sentenced to three months' hard labour.

STAPLES SURPRISES!

STUFFED VEAL CHOPS

- 4 rib chops
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 1 cup water
- 2 tablespoons fat

Select chops cut one inch thick and have slits made to hold the stuffing. Carefully stuff chops, holding together with wood picks. Sprinkle with flour and seasonings. Fit into shallow baking pan. Add rest of ingredients. Cover and bake 1 hour in moderate oven. Baste every 20 minutes. Remove picks before serving.

- 1 teaspoon chopped parsley
- 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon pepper
- 1 1/2 cups bread, crumbled
- 3 tablespoons cream

Melt fat and add celery and onion. Cook 2 minutes, add rest of ingredients, mixing with fork. When blended, stuff chops.

HOT ONION TOAST

For supper, hot sandwiches are most savoury and delicious.

Ingredients: Spanish onions, hot buttered toast, salt and pepper, cheese, mustard.

Fry the sliced onions to a nice brown and spread thickly over rounds of hot buttered toast. Season. Cover with thin slices of cheese spread with a little mustard. Put into a hot oven or before a fire until the cheese is melted.

BACON AND EGG

Picnic lunchers will like to include these in the meal.

Chop up finely a cupful of either cold boiled bacon, or two rashers of fried bacon. Mix with two hard-boiled eggs, pepper and salt. Add a little salad dressing, then spread on thin slices of buttered bread.

VEGETABLE AND CHUTNEY

For a vegetarian meal or a meatless day. Mash a cupful of cooked green peas and potato with the pulp of three tomatoes and a hard-boiled egg. Add a dessert-spoonful of chutney and sufficient mayonnaise to mix. Season with pepper, salt and a little chopped parsley, then spread on bread.

SARDINE AND TOMATO

These are always popular. Smash up the sardines to a smooth paste with the olive oil in which they are packed—add a sprinkling of pepper and a little more salt

VEGETABLE MEDLEY

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 1 teaspoon celery salt

Melt butter and add flour. When mixed, add milk and cook until creamy sauce forms. Stir constantly. Add rest of ingredients and simmer 4 minutes.

FRUITED SWEET POTATOES

- 4 tablespoons fat

- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 4 slices pineapple
- 1 cup raisins
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon cloves
- 1 cup water or pineapple juice

Melt fat in frying pan, add and brown potatoes. Add seasonings. Cover with pineapple and add rest of ingredients. Cover with lid. Cook about 10 minutes or until pineapple has browned a little.

FRUIT SURPRISE

- 2 tablespoons granulated gelatin
- 1 cup cold water
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 egg yolks
- 2 cups milk
- 1 cup chopped pineapple
- 1 cup chopped red cherries
- 2 egg whites, beaten

Cool and add fruits and whites. Pour into glass dish and sprinkle with coconut. Chill until firm. Serve with cream.

and either a drop of chili sauce or mayonnaise sauce. Sk'n some tomatoes by dipping in boiling water for a moment and then slice them finely. Add a spreading of the sardine paste over the tomato slices to make the sandwiches. Trim the sides neatly.

YOUNG CARROTS MINTED

Wash and scrape small young carrots. Place them, whole, in a heavy saucepan or skillet with 2 tablespoons butter or other fat to every 6 or 7 carrots. Add only the water that clings to them after washing. Sprinkle with salt, cover and cook slowly until almost tender. Sprinkle generously with granulated sugar and cook uncovered until carrots take on a glazed appearance. Sprinkle with finely chopped fresh mint a few minutes before removing from pan.

SPINACH FLORENTINE

- 2 tbs. fat
 - 2 tbs. flour
 - 1 tsp. salt
 - 2 cups cooked spinach
 - 1 cup milk
 - 6 eggs
 - 1 cup buttered crumbs
- Heat fat, add flour and salt and mix well. Add milk slowly and cook over hot water until thick, stirring constantly. Chop the spinach rather fine and put in a greased casserole. Pour the white sauce over it. Make 6 wells in the sauce and drop an egg in each. Sprinkle top with crumbs and bake in a moderate oven, for about 20 minutes or until the eggs are set.

POTATO PASTRY

Dice raw potato fairly small, season well, place on pastry round and moisten with a little thick cream or dot with butter. Dampen edges and press well together. Bake about 1 hour in a moderate oven.

CRAB AND EGG

For crab and egg sandwiches you will need the hard-boiled yolks of two eggs, the finely chopped meat of one fairly large boiled crab, one tablespoonful of melted butter, a few drops of lemon juice.

Pound the egg yolks to a paste with the butter, add crab, seasoning and lemon juice, mix to spreadable consistency. Spread liberally on thin buttered bread.

PRAWNS AND CUCUMBER

These will be a pleasant surprise at your picnic party.

Ingredients: 1 pint pickled prawns, two hard-boiled eggs, twenty thin slices of chopped cucumber, salted. Chop the prawns up finely or pound them in a special small mortar, add a drop of chili sauce and then add the hard-boiled egg chopped up very finely. Arrange a thin slice of cucumber on nicely buttered, thin of either brown or white bread and then spread a thin layer of the prawn and eggs—cover with second thin slice of bread and cut the sandwiches attractively.

HOBO "KING" OF AMERICA

Gets Job—And Abdicates His Throne

"UNION" LOSING MEMBERS

Halifax, Canada.—J. Leon Lazarowitz, "King" of the Hoboes of North America, called his cabinet together in Halifax recently to announce that he had abdicated his throne—because he is taking a job. He appointed three "regents" to carry on until a new king is elected at a hobo convention already set for next April, in St. Louis, U.S.A.

"It's hard," said King Leon, "to leave the freedom of the road and have to be at a certain place at a certain time so you can earn a certain amount of money for a certain amount of work. But I've promised a certain party to settle down and take a job."

"And plenty of us," he added, "are doing the same thing. There were 5,689 members of our union once. Now there are only 3,587. This shows many men are quitting the road, going to work."

Leon held his last court throned on a park bench in the shadow of the Halifax city hall. His cabinet of fifteen sat decorously on other benches. They had gathered by divers ways from the roads of the continent.

KING DECORATES A CLERGYMAN

The King has conferred the C.V.O. on the Rev. Dr. John Stirton, minister of Crathie Church, and has appointed him to be chaplain-in-ordinary to the Royal Household. The ceremony took place in the library of Balmoral Castle recently. "It was my dear father's wish that I should do this," said the King.

Dr. Stirton retires next month and the King expressed deep appreciation of his long services at Crathie. Dr. Stirton has been minister of Crathie and domestic chaplain to the King for eighteen years, serving under two sovereigns. He has been a minister of the Church of Scotland for forty years.

MRS. MARKHAM FINED FOR SPEEDING

Mrs. Beryl Markham, Grosvenor-square, W., who flew solo to America last month, was at Woolwich fined 20s. for exceeding the 30 m.p.h. limit at Rochester-way, Eltham.

The Magistrate (Mr. Walter Hedley, K.C.) ordered her licence to be endorsed.

A constable said that when stopped Mrs. Markham said, "I did not know there was a speed limit. I have never been here before."

BIGGER GUNS FOR NAVY

Britain To Match Other Navies

JAPAN'S SECRET PLANS

Great Britain is determined to match any increase in gun calibre contemplated by foreign navies.

If battleships mounting 16-inch guns are planned abroad Great Britain will build ships mounting 16-inch guns. If 18-inch or even larger guns make their appearance in foreign navies, Great Britain will match their construction, states the Naval Correspondent of the "Morning Post."

There is to be no question of accepting any ship-or-ship inferiority in future naval construction. It is even possible that, if other nations endeavour to effect increases in gun calibre, Great Britain may consider building ships with armament so powerful that it could not be exceeded.

This does not mean that the two battleships to be laid down early in the New Year are to mount guns of very large calibre. As has been stated in the "Morning Post," these ships are to mount 14-inch guns. Owing to the speed at which preliminary work on these ships has been pushed forward, Great Britain is now committed to the 14-inch gun for these two ships.

14-INCH GUN CLAUSE

It is held that these two ships are required primarily to offset capital ship construction in Europe—notably the 26,000-ton German battleships—and that the 14-inch gun therefore does not represent an inferiority, even if Japan and the United States build ships mounting bigger guns.

Under the terms of the London Naval Treaty of last March—which has so far been ratified only by the United States—the gun calibre of capital ships is limited to 14 inches if Japan agrees to this limitation before April 1 next year.

Some months ago Japan was asked whether she would subscribe to the Treaty, and her answer was "No." This was taken by the United States to mean that Japan had no intention of adhering to the limit of 14 inches for the gun calibre of future capital ships, and the United States has made plans for the laying down of two battleships mounting 16-inch guns early next year.

There have been rumours that Japan is contemplating the construction of capital ships of very large size and mounting guns of 18-inch calibre.

Japan is observing the closest secrecy about her naval plans, but if these rumours prove to be facts it would seem to show that Japan is bent upon following the strategy of Lord Fisher in building ships which will call for "replies" so large that they cannot pass through the strategic canal of the potential enemy—in this case the Panama Canal.

So far as Great Britain is concerned, the adoption of such a policy would lead to the mounting in British battleships of guns as powerful as, if not more powerful than, any mounted in foreign capital ships.

FUTURE TONNAGE LIMIT

Under modern conditions aircraft spotting has gone far towards eliminating the effect of maximum visibility upon effective range. It is widely acknowledged that the ability to hit with heavy metal at long range is all-important in naval warfare. These factors are largely dependent upon the calibre of the gun.

But if the maximum gun calibre for battleships of the future increases, the size of the ships must also increase in order to enable sufficient armour and steaming qualities to be incorporated. Thus the tonnage limit of 35,000 tons laid down in the naval Treaty will become inoperative.

The elimination of the Treaty limits for gun power and tonnage in future battleships will not entail the breaking of the Treaty by any Power, for Japan and Italy have not signed, and the adherence of signatory Powers is so governed by safeguarding clauses that action by any of the non-signatory Powers will lead to automatic escape by the signatory Powers from the limitations.

The fact that the calibre of the main armament of the future battleships to be built for Great Britain is already under serious consideration is taken in some quarters to confirm the view that another Navy Supplementary Estimate for the provision of one or more additional battleships may be presented before the end of the year.

Why Ovaltine is unequalled for Economy

From every point of view, 'Ovaltine' is the most economical food beverage you can buy. It gives you more health-giving nourishment—more in quality and more in quantity.

Delicious 'Ovaltine' is a scientifically perfect food made from the highest qualities of malt extract, creamy milk and new-laid eggs. No other food beverage conveys so much nourishment so quickly to body, brain and nerves:

'Ovaltine' gives you more in quantity because of its concentrated nature and larger tins. For example, the smallest size tin of 'Ovaltine' makes 16 cupfuls complete in nutritive and energy-giving value, and the larger sizes are even more economical. Quality always tells.

There is nothing just as good as Genuine 'Ovaltine' Reject substitutes.

LAST HIGHLAND GATHERING

Piping At Invergordon

The first snows of autumn were grey on Ben Wyvis on September 28 and the air was decidedly cold when the Invergordon Highland Gathering began. This, the last of the Highland gatherings, was postponed for a week so that the officers and men of the Fleet newly arrived at Invergordon might be present. The great ships, Rodney and Nelson, which had steamed north through the Minch and round Cape Wrath, were lying with attendant destroyers, and large numbers of the men of the Fleet visited the gathering. During the day the massed bands from H.M.S. Nelson and H.M.S. Rodney played lively music, and there was an admirable display of drill given by Marines from H.M.S. Nelson. Sir William and Lady Martineau of Kincaig entertained a distinguished party on the ground, including the General Officer Commanding Scottish Area, General Sir Archibald Cameron, and the Earl and Countess of Cassilis.

The open piping events were judged by Mr. Seton Gordon and the Pipe-Major John Macdonald. In the open pibroch the first prize was the silver cup given by Sir William Martineau, a silver medal also given by him, and a money prize of £5. The cup is eligible to be won every third year by the same piper, and Malcolm Macpherson, although first in the competition, could not win the cup because he had won it last year. Piper John Wilson was second in this competition and won the Martineau Cup.

UNEXPECTED INCIDENT

Pipe Major Logie, of The Seaforth Highlanders, was playing really well and seemed almost certain to secure the cup when he and his audience were startled to hear two sudden shrill squeaks on the low A of his chanter in the dithis of his tune "The Lament for the Only Son." The cold may have been responsible. Logie at Oban had played the same tune

CLAIM AGAINST MR. JAMES MOLLISON

A jury in Sydney recently decided in favour of Messrs. Prouds for £85 10s. in a claim for £100 against Mr. James Mollison, the airman, arising from an alleged agreement regarding the supply of aircraft instruments for Mr. Mollison's flight from Australia to England in 1931.

It was alleged, among other things, that Mr. Mollison first claimed that his mind was a blank as to the arrangements for the loan of the instruments.

and had not been far off winning the gold medal. Malcolm Macpherson played Glengarry's March, composed, it is said, to commemorate the firing of the church at Urray, and he gave what was probably his best performance of the season. Wilson played "The Lament for Padraig of MacCrimmon," and spent an inordinately long time tuning his pipes beside the platform yet had trouble with them, and his chanter read was sometimes unpleasantly weak on the low d, an unusual fault with Wilson. Considering the cold the competitors played well and Pipe Major Macleod, of Golspie, would have been in the prize list with "The Battle of the Pass of Crieir" had he played rather less slowly. Pipe Major Johnston, of the Cameron Highlanders, was third, his tune being "The Lament for the Union might have been heard." This unusual tune was a great favourite with the old pipers.

The competition in open marches was won by Malcolm Macpherson, his tune being "The Lochaber Gathering." Pipe Major George MacLennan Wilson was second, and his playing was very good also in strathspey and reel. Wilson was first, playing "The Piper's Bonnet" and "Big John MacKechnie," an old reel composed on a noted inhabitant of the North of Sutherland. Malcolm Macpherson was second, his strathspey being "Magpie Cameron," a fine tune composed by George MacLennan's uncle, Willie MacLennan, on his his sweetheart, a Lochaber girl whose untimely death he greatly mourned. "Times."

"BRIDES ARE LIKE THAT"

A new First National comedy, "Brides are Like That" which promises to be one of the most hilarious fun makers of season is being shown at the Queen's Theatre to-day.

Based on the stage hit "Apple-sauce" by Barry Conners, the picture has all the ingredients, not only of riotous comedy, but an exceptional romance.

The picture centres about the activities of a happy-go-lucky ne'er-do-well who knows every dog in town by its first name and has such a tremendous gift for flattery that no one can help liking him.

After leaving college the youth sponges on his uncle, a wealthy apple-grower, because he and hard work just can't agree. The uncle's exasperation reaches a climax when his nephew buys an engagement ring for his sweetheart and charges it to him.

But the young flatterer reckoned without his sweetheart and her parents. They were pressing her to marry a more responsible rival, and when she finds he had purchased an engagement ring without even proposing she is so piqued she throws her parents.

The way in which the youth circumvents his rival, wins the admiration of his sweetheart's parents and his uncle, brings about one of the most hilarious climaxes imaginable. Ross Alexander and Anita Louise play the leading roles.

"WOMEN ARE TROUBLE"

Appropriately enough, "Women are Trouble" is the title of the newspaper story which is the current attraction at the King's Theatre.

Newspaper men, with few exceptions, will agree with the declarative title, some from experience and many others from observation. Women, from their standpoint, are also provender for the press, material for the head writers and subject matter for the photographers.

In the picture, Stuart Erwin gives newspapermen a chance to see themselves as others see them, in the characterization of Matt Casey, a star reporter, Florence Rice who is incidentally the charming daughter of Grantland Rice, the sports writer, plays a girl reporter who increases the circulation of the men she meets, whatever she does for that of the paper.

"GREAT LITTLE MAN"

Mr. I. W. Schlesinger, donor of the £10,000 prizes in the Johannesburg air race, arrived in Cape Town as a steamer passenger about 40 years ago.

He had come from the United States with the financial backing of a few pounds and a watch given him by his mother.

His job was insurance; and in those days all the riches in the world seemed to be concentrated in Johannesburg, which was only beginning to blossom from a mining camp.

Malden's charter was presented by the Lord Mayor of London, Sir Percy Vincent, to the Charter Mayor J. B. Hill, and that of Clethorpe by Lord Henegge to Sir George Moody, the Charter Mayor.

HOMESICK PARENTS

Returning To England From Hollywood

because they are homesick in Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew, parents of man star Freddie, plan to leave and settle in London states the New York correspondent of the "Daily Mail."

Freddie will remain in the care of his aunt.

The father, who travelled to America four months ago, third class, will return with a large income, which may soon be doubled.

A friend of the family said that Freddie's income is now about £400 a week.

He may soon, with broadcasting and other extras, be earning £800 a week.

By the recent legal settlement his father receives ten per cent. of his income, while the daughters, Eileen and Hilda, receive five per cent each. Father and daughters thus receive a total of £80 a week.

A dispute has arisen among three legal firms that handled the recent custody case. Their joint fees total £2,000. The firm that handled the case in Hollywood demands two-thirds of this but the other two say each of the three should have one-third each.

The New York firm is threatening legal action against the Hollywood firm.

UNDER THE COCHRAN BANNER

Charles B. Cochran has gathered two more stars under his banner—Grace Fields and Richard Tauber. They are to appear under his management next year. Both have been busily engaged in film work and are among the highest salaried artists in Britain.

Tauber has just finished a picture of "Pagliacci" of which I hear good accounts, and Grace Fields was recently offered a huge amount to make one film in Hollywood, writes a film correspondent.

Tauber will sing in English for the first time on the stage. He will appear next May in one of the Lehar operettas in which he made his name on the Continent.

Miss Fields is to have the leading part in a musical play, and she will open in London in February, after a visit to Manchester.

Grace Fields is one of the most successful artists in the world, and her earnings are enormous. Ten years ago she was hardly known in London, although the touring revues in which she played, notably "Mr. Tower of London," were very successful in the provinces.

Sir Gerald du Maurier saw her and in 1928 offered her the part of Lady Weir in "S.O.S." at the St. James's her first and only appearance in a "straight" play.

"BOULDER DAM"

"Boulder Dam," a Warner Bros. production heralded as a drama of thrilling action, heroic deeds and glamorous romance, is the feature attraction at the Majestic Theatre to-day.

Ross Alexander portrays a shirking, disgruntled mechanic in a mid-West garage. In a fist fight with his boss, the latter is killed by a fall, and the mechanic flees.

He lands at Las Vegas, where the dam was being built. In a dance hall and cafe he is about to be ejected as a tramp when Patricia Ellis, in the role of a singer at the club, intervenes, buys him food and takes him to her home, where he is welcomed by her kindly family.

The mechanic goes to work and saves the lives of many of his fellows at the risk of his own.

Lyle Talbot, in the "heavy" role, is in love with the girl and also knows of his successful rival's past.

He gives Ross twenty-four hours to quit the town, but on that last day an incident occurs which changes the whole aspect of the situation and brings the picture to a close in a smashing climax.

The picture is enlivened by song numbers written by the famous team of Mort Dixon and Allie Wrubel and sung by Patricia Ellis.

partner in a gang. He chose instead to become dictator of South Africa's entertainment. He owns a chain of cinemas and theatres. He is also banker, farmer and insurer, and until recently he controlled the broadcasting system.

Throughout South Africa he is known as the "Great Little Man."

Further Extension Of Space At Birmingham

Next Year's Fair

A further extension of the British Industries Fair buildings in Birmingham, with a new main entrance on the north side, was decided upon by the Fair Management Committee in Birmingham recently.

"The new extension brings us within easy sight of quadrupling the original area of 1920," Mr. J. Percy Plant, Chairman of the Committee, stated in an interview.

"Although we increased the exhibiting area by 27,000 square feet for the 1936 Fair, we are now adding a further 12,000 square feet, bringing our total indoor exhibiting space to well over 300,000 square feet."

"The extension is nominally of the Building Section, but there will be a general effect upon the rest of the Fair."

"The provision of the long-desired central main entrance has an important bearing on the development of the outdoor section, the lay-out of which can now be finally determined."

RICHEST MAN

One wonders whether the Inland Revenue Department will ever get to the end of the fortune of the Sir John Borman.

Already £14,000,000 has been paid on that estate. Apparently there's more to come.

The latest estimate of the total is round about £37,000,000. But even that isn't all. There's real estate, and certain property abroad to be reckoned.

A record, not only for this country, but even for America. It's a case of "Oh yeah!" to J. D. Rockefeller.

"KING OF STOWAWAYS"

Mystery Linguist Sentenced

Described by a detective as the "King of Stowaways," Kollino Rooks, 23, was at Salford sentenced to four months' hard labour on charges of landing in the United Kingdom contrary to the Aliens Order, and making a false statement to a police officer.

Det.-sergt. Clemenston declared that Rooks had given three different versions of how he got into the country.

"He is purely an obstructionist and seems bent on giving the police and immigration officials the utmost difficulty," continued the officer.

"He is undoubtedly the King of Stowaways, and we can only hope that some time he will disclose the true information of his identity."

"It seems that he will not tell the truth because he is in fear of something abroad."

Det.-sergt. Clemenston added that

OLD CONTEMPTIBLES

They Feel Neglected, Says Association President

Old Contemptibles nowadays feel neglected, remarked General Sir Felix Ready, president, at the annual dinner of the Old Contemptibles Association, London Area, in London recently.

"It is not that we want to boast about what happened 22 years ago," he added, "but what we do want to boast about is that 22 years after we are keeping alive the spirit of comradeship and loyalty."

Sir Felix pointed out that last year 30,000 jobs were found by the National Association for Discharged Soldiers, Sailors, and Airmen.

Rooks spoke fluent English, French, German, and Portuguese.

It was stated that Rooks had previously received sentences of imprisonment at Cardiff for landing without permission and at Hull for failing to comply with regulations.

DRUGS INTENDED FOR HUSBAND

Woman Arrested On Possession Charge
HEAVY PENALTY

Chung Yeung, 35, married woman of 18 Centre Street, appeared before Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy yesterday morning on a charge of being found in possession of heroin pills and opium. Defendant pleaded guilty to the offence but stated that the drugs were intended for curative purposes for her husband who was suffering from tuberculosis and was paralysed in one leg. Mr. d'Almada Remedios appeared for the defence. The prosecution told the Court that three envelopes, each containing 100 heroin pills, were found on the defendant's premises, as well as a quantity of opium. The second charge, that of keeping opium, had been withdrawn but the authorities took a very serious view to the possession of heroin pills. Mr. d'Almada Remedios stated that the defendant's husband had to take daily about 40 pills in the morning and six in the evening to relieve himself of his sufferings. The invalid was introduced to the Court.

"People smoking that much would be very strong addicts," the prosecution stated, and added that the man would not be in such a condition if he had not smoked so many pills. A heavy penalty of $550 or six months in gaol was imposed.

The Police told the Court that defendant was seen by District Watchman No. 84 endeavouring to sell the meat-tray to a marine shop. Questioned by the officer, accused admitted stealing the article and was taken to the eating house where the proprietor identified his property. COUNTERFEIT MONEY

Woman Sentenced At Sessions
ARRIVED FROM CANTON

Found guilty by a jury at the Criminal Sessions yesterday, a woman, Luk Ngan Ming, was sentenced by the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, to twelve months' hard labour on charges of importing from China 654 counterfeit Hong Kong ten cents pieces and possession of the coins. Mr. M. J. Abbott, Assistant Crown Solicitor, prosecuted.

The following jury was empanelled:—Messrs. C. H. Benson (foreman), A. Komorsky, H. W. Pomeroy, Li Kwan-shek, Leung Chung-yu, R. Cheung Chee Chung and Chan Kwan-yuen.

Mr. Abbott said that the defendant arrived from Canton aboard the s.s. Kwangtung at 1 a.m. on September 20. She was in the third class accommodation and was sitting on a heap of cargo. On the approach of a female searcher of the revenue department, the defendant threw away a packet which was later found to contain bad coins. The defendant was searched and more coins were found in her left lower jacket pocket. She was taken to Central Police Station and the case was handed over to Det. Sergt. Pilkington.

In her statements in answer to the charges, the accused said that she was given the coins by a woman who promised to pay her two dollars to take the coins to the Ko Shing tea-house. Defendant also stated that she had no intention to utter the coins.

Det. Sergt. Whitcroft, attached to the Treasury, who examined the coins said that they were the best imitations he had discovered so far.

This was revealed in Court yesterday morning when the accused appeared before Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy on a charge of larceny of two gold rings from his fellow passengers.

The passengers discovered their losses when they awoke and immediately reported the thefts to the ship's watchman who, on making enquiries from other passengers in the steerage hold, found that defendant had been seen near the ring owners. The man admitted the thefts when arrested and he was handed over to the Hong Kong Police when the vessel docked.

A 24-hour remand was granted to the prosecution.

WOMAN'S ALARMING EXPERIENCE

Pepper Thrown On Her Face By Thief

SHAMSHUIPO INCIDENT

Appearing before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday, Lal Hung, 38, unemployed, was charged with larceny of a hand bag from Wong Chun, 25, married woman, at the junction of Pei Ho Street and Hal Tan Street, on October 19.

Sergt. Forrest prosecuted and stated that about 7 p.m. on the day in question, the complainant was walking to the Sham Shui Po Ferry, and when at the junction of Pei Ho Street and Hal Tan Street, she felt some one behind her. A hand was then brushed over her face and her eyes began to water. She noticed a male in dark clothing who attempted to pull her bag. A struggle ensued during which the complainant fell on the ground with the man still holding her bag.

An alarm was raised by passers-by and accused ran down Pei Ho Street. The woman gave chase into Hal Tan Street. The defendant attempted to hide behind a pillar but when he saw the complainant he ran back along Pei Ho Street.

By this time the complainant noticed that the man could not run very fast as he had a limp. At this moment an Indian Constable came on the scene and arrested the defendant.

Sergt. Forrest said that he was only duty when the accused was brought to the station, and marks of white powder were found on the woman's face which smelt like pepper. The complainant was taken to the hospital to have medical attention as her eyes were inflamed.

A small packet was found on the defendant which contained white powder.

Defendant was sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

Robbery Attempt By Man With Violence

"I HAVE NOTHING TO SAY"

Continuing the case against Li Lin-fong, 47, who faced a charge of robbery with violence before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday, Chief Detective Inspector J. Murphy, prosecuting for the Hong Kong Police, brought in further evidence to support the story told by Tam, 61, an amah employed by a printing shop proprietor, the victim of the crime.

The first witness yesterday, Chiu Chun, coolie at the Young Ming Kong Printing Works, 12 Sai On Lane, told the Court that at 4.15 p.m. on September 29, he was sitting outside the shop. The first inkling he had of the affair was when the defendant ran past him about four feet away followed by the amah who was shouting, "He has snatched my money!" He immediately joined in the chase and later saw defendant enter a leather shop at 388 Des Voeux Road Central. He followed the man in and found him on the third floor and when the amah came up after him and said, "That's the man!" he seized him and dragged him downstairs. Another foki from his master's shop met him and together they brought the man to their master who then told them to take the defendant to the police station.

Following further evidence by the prosecution the defendant admitted the crime and told the Court that he had nothing to say in his own defence.

The prisoner was committed to the Criminal Sessions next month to stand trial.

"PHILIPPINE CLIPPER"

Pan-American Seaplane Due To-Morrow

INAUGURAL TRIP FROM MANILA

It is stated authoritatively that the Pan-American Airways' seaplane Philippine Clipper will arrive in the Colony to-morrow.

Weather permitting, the Philippine Clipper will leave Manila Bay at 7 a.m. to-morrow, and will fly direct to Macao, where it is scheduled to arrive at noon. The Clipper will depart from Macao at 3 p.m. arriving here in less than half an hour.

SPLENDID AIRPORT

Work that has been progressing apace for some time is nearing completion at Kai Tak and when the Clipper arrives here, it will land at the most modern airport in the Far East. The bay in which Kai Tak airport is situated, is over a mile in length thus affording ample space for the largest seaplane to alight and take off.

Junks and sampans will not be permitted to enter a defined area. This will therefore obliterate a serious problem to the air authorities here.

"NIGHT MUST FALL"

Heavy Booking For Local A.D.C. Production

SEVERAL ACTORS TO MAKE DEBUT

Booking for the Amateur Dramatic Club's forthcoming production of Emyln Williams' famous play "Night Must Fall," opened with a flourish on Monday last and the number of seats already sold augurs well for public support for the latest enterprise. With this play the A. D. C. opens its ninety-third season and there is every reason to believe that "Night Must Fall" will take its place in the long line of successes produced by the Club since its foundation in 1844.

Mr. E. G. Smith-Wright, now firmly established with Hong Kong play-goers, is in charge of the production and under his able guidance the carefully selected cast is shaping well. Most of the players are new to the Hong Kong footlights and foremost among these is Nigel Waymouth who comes to us with a brilliant record from the Malta A. D. C. Ruby Mathieson is too well known in musical circles to need introduction but we believe this will be her first appearance here in dramatic work. In Winnie Cox we have an actress of very considerable experience in amateur work in England while Beth Smith-Wright has earned a high place in the Shanghai dramatic club. San Pringle makes her debut in this production and Fay Grossman returns to the local stage after an absence all too long from the point of view of Hong Kong play-goers. The remainder of the male side of the cast comprises Jerry Marsh, J. Roberts and G. Gilmour, who are shaping well in minor roles.

An effective setting for the play has been executed by Mr. W. A. Cornell and stage direction will again be in the experienced hands of Mr. E. Grossman.

Performances will be given at The China Fleet Club Theatre at 9.15 p.m. sharp on the nights of 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th November and seats may be booked at The Anderson Music Co.

SHANGHAI INQUEST

Sequel To Death Of Mr. D. E. Abraham

The deceased being a man without nationality, an inquest was conducted recently by Procurator Soong over the body of D. Ezra Abraham, aged 48, a Jew, which was found in House No. 57, Lane No. 644, Hart Road, Shanghai, states the "North China Daily News."

At the conclusion of the inquest, the Procurator returned a verdict of death due to wounds received from being chopped with a chopper and assaulted with a hammer. The body was ordered to be removed for burial by the representative of the Jewish Communal Association and the police were instructed to apprehend the assailant or assailants of the deceased.

Police evidence was to the effect that a female Chinese alleyway sweeper named Yao Yung-sz found the deceased's body and, when police attended, they found the deceased had apparently been murdered with a chopper and a hammer by person or persons at present unknown. The body had been examined by the Council doctor, as the deceased was first alleged to be a British subject.

Yao Yung-sung, witness, told the Procurator that he did not hear any alarm raised by the deceased when he was murdered. Witness said he did not see any friend calling on the deceased who lived in his house alone.

PRICE OF SUGAR HIGHER

The price of sugar in the East River area is steadily rising due to the absence of smuggled sugar.

It is generally known that great quantities of sugar has been smuggled into that area from Hong Kong by secret overland routes.

According to a Canton source, the detention of the steamer s.s. "Italy" for conveying illicit sugar has been responsible also for the falling off of foreign supply.

BICYCLE THEFT

Mentally Deranged Boy Charged At Kowloon

BOUND OVER

Stated not to be responsible for his actions, Ho Mun Kam, 19, 1 Ping On Lane, second floor, appeared before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Court yesterday charged with larceny of a bicycle, outside No. 413 Castle Peak Road on October 20 about 5.15 p.m. The value of the bicycle was said to be $20, and has been recovered.

Complainant was Ng Wong, 38, shop keeper, of No. 15, Ki Lung Street, first floor.

Acting Sub-Inspector Hughes, prosecuting stated that on October 20, B.C. 380 was on Patrol on Castle Peak Road, when he saw the defendant riding a bicycle on the wrong side of the road. He shouted to the defendant to stop, but the defendant instead, jumped off the machine and ran away. He was chased and on being apprehended he admitted that the machine did not belong to him.

Acting Sub-Inspector Hughes asked his worship not to sentence the defendant but only bind him over, as he was mentally unbalanced and was not responsible for his actions.

Mr. Macfadyen asked defendant's mother, who was in court if she would be responsible for the boy's actions in future; and received a reply in the affirmative.

Defendant was bound over in $100 in the mother's security for six months.

POSSESSION OF FALSE NOTES

Heavy Sentence Imposed At Kowloon

POLICE AND AGENTS

Sentence of six months' hard labour for possession of two $200 and two $10 banknotes was imposed upon Chan Kwong, 25, by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday afternoon.

Inspector Elston prosecuted and said that the defendant was arrested on information received, and on being searched the notes were found in his pocket.

Wong Sing, seaman, said that he had met the defendant some time last month when he was introduced, and after a long conversation with him, he (witness) went to the police, and acted on their instruction.

On October 2, the defendant came with some samples of banknotes in a restaurant in Shanghai Street. The next day he arranged to meet defendant at Prince's Café, where they bargained over the bills. The next meeting took place on October 6 at the Lin Heung tea-house, at the junction of Canton Road and Shanghai Street, where transactions took place after a slight delay. Five days later they met again at the Duk Yue tea-house, and here the notes were shown to another man named Leung Hoi, who was also under police instructions. Leung suggested they should go to Nan-kin Road to complete transactions. All three went, with witness and the defendant walking in front, and Leung behind. In Shanghai Street both were stopped by a Chinese Detective, on instructions, and arrested.

At this stage the defendant claimed that witness lent him the money to do business with, and that a friend named Yeun would be responsible.

"How can I lend the defendant so much money, I only knew him one month ago, and besides this man Yeun is even poorer than I am," said the witness.

Defendant strenuously denies the charges, stating that the money did not belong to him, and also added that this was his first offence.

Before being sentenced Inspector Elston pointed out to His Worship that the police knew that this sort of thing had been going on for a long time, but were unable to get the man selling the notes and had to employ agents in their effort to trace him.

The defendant was allowed to talk to his wife for a few moments before going to gaol.

CONSTABLE IN TROUBLE

Searches Flat, And Demands Money

SERIOUS ALLEGATIONS

Yau Kwong, 28, police constable of Shumshupo Police Station was brought before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on two charges, alleging misconduct as a police officer by entering the first floor of No. 214 Cheung Sha Wan Road and searching without a warrant, and for demanding $10 with menaces from Chan Kai Kwong, at the above address.

Acting Sub-Inspector Hughes prosecuted and stated that he was on duty when complainant came into the charge room, breathless from exertion, and said that a police officer was in his flat, searching the place. Det-Sergt. Riddell went to the flat on his motor cycle and found the defendant searching the rooms. He was arrested and taken to the station. The case was remanded for a date to be fixed for hearing.

DOG OWNER FINED

For allowing her German sheep dog on a public road without a muzzle, or on a lead, Mrs. Wong Shuk-yiu, of 48 Kennedy Road, was fined $10 by Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy yesterday morning. Mr. D'Arcy S. Curtis, solicitor, appeared for the lady and told the Court that his client pleaded guilty to the offence.

CANVAS BELT CUT WITH KNIFE

Robbery Sequel At Sessions

Before the Chief Justice, 811 Athol MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions yesterday, Li Yung, 31, contractors' coolie, faced a charge that being armed with a knife, he robbed Chau Fat, of a canvas belt and $44.97, in a match at Lai-ni-kok on September 18.

Mr. E. H. Williams, Assistant Attorney General, appeared for the Crown and the following jury was empanelled: Messrs. B. C. A. Proulx (foreman), Chey Sai-plu, T. D. Paton, R. M. Henry, C. A. de C. Rodrigues, H. A. Ribeiro and R. A. Stirling.

Mr. Williams explained to the jury that two days previous to the Sessions the accused, in reply to the charge, stated that he cut the belt while the complainant was asleep. He stole the belt but did not go so far as robbery.

Both complainant and the accused were formerly employed together at a firm of contractors and the accused left some months ago.

Complainant was employed as a watchman and resided in a matchbox which was also partly used as a store. On the night in question the door was shut and hooked with a piece of rope.

VICTIM INJURED

About 8 p.m., the complainant heard a noise and later saw the accused who was carrying a basket and a torch. Accused grabbed complainant by his belt and made a cutting motion. The victim felt a sharp instrument cutting the palm of his hand. He tried to catch the accused but failed. The complainant felt a second cut this time on the nape of the neck. The accused then ran away after making another cut at the canvas belt.

Complainant ran out and met some Indian policemen who telephoned to Shumshupo Police Station. On returning back the complainant saw a bus coming from the direction of Lai-ni-kok with one occupant who was the accused. The bus was stopped and the accused taken off. He was searched by Sub-Inspector Hudson of the Royal Naval Yard Police who found $43 in banknotes in the accused's shoe.

Inspector Chester Woods visited the matchbox and found a knife and some money on the floor.

Accused stated that through poverty he was compelled to steal otherwise he would have committed suicide.

Evidence was heard after which the prisoner was found guilty and was sentenced to two years' hard labour.

PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN

Davis Joins Attack On Roosevelt

New York, Oct. 21.
A split among the supporters of the candidate Mr. Lemke is a feature of the presidential campaign.

Mr. Lemke had hitherto been supported by the Union Party, by Dr. Townsend, followers of the late Huey Long and the radio priest Coughlin. Now the Unionites and Townsends have severed relations with the Rev. Gerald Smith, controller of Huey Long's "share the wealth" movement, owing to Smith's alleged Fascist tendencies and his announcement that he is founding a "Nationalist" movement.

In the meanwhile Mr. Roosevelt has left Washington as a tour of Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and Connecticut, while Governor Landon received a mixed reception at Los Angeles, where a number of workers booed him while his supporters cheered.

Mr. John H. Davis, Democratic candidate in 1924, has joined the attack against Mr. Roosevelt, declaring that the latter has shown a most callous disregard of party principles, platform promises and personal pledges in the history of American politics.—Register.

CHINESE CONSUL IN SINGAPORE

Canton, Oct. 21.

When Mr. Tsyau Joo-lin, Chinese Consul-General of Singapore was transferred to Canton by the Central Government to act as special commissioner of foreign affairs for the Two Kwang Provinces. Mr. Ko Ling-pa was appointed to act for him during his absence.—Chinese Evening Press.

A feature of the foreign exchange to-day is the further weakening of discounts, for we have French francs for three months

It is largely concerned, for example, with economic welfare, and devotes much of its labour to, furthering the interests of world trade and industry. As a passive body the League is not identified with organisation or direction, but through its various departments it makes valuable contributions to the structure by study of the numerous factors which influence the trade movement.

One of the organisations which is diligent in such matters is the Economic Intelligence Service, and recently there were published the results of the researches made by this body into trade conditions and circumstances in 1935. The review may appear somewhat belated, but the fact that it deals in detail with 160 areas throughout the world serves as sufficient explanation of the apparent delay, while the data provided will afford valuable guidance for the future.

The report, as is perhaps inevitably the case where such documents are prepared by economists and statisticians, complicated. But out of a mass of figures two main features emerge—namely, that the quantity of world trade last year was greater than in 1934, and that the improvement was due to the relative stability of currencies. This general conclusion may be subject to modification according to whether valuations are made on a gold or sterling basis, but the broad fact remains that the turnover of world trade was larger, and that a greater measure of currency stability was the influencing factor.

While it is the case that international trade benefited from the greater degree of currency stability, the investigators are by means satisfied with the change position. They point out that "exchange restrictions in Europe in particular continue to obstruct the exchange of goods and the recent tendencies commercial policy based on principle of 'bilateralism' affected the direction of trade even certain countries outside Europe where they had hitherto been little importance. As a result there was a further decline in the share of 'triangular' transactions in the total world trade."

Such an observation can only be regarded as an indictment of the exchange system as it exists and emphasises the 'highly artificial basis' on which international trade is conducted.

All the principal currencies of the world are now under control and while it may be that this very control which gave this relative stability to exchange last year, and permitted an expansion in the volume of trade transacted, the artificial aspect of the whole currency situation remains.

A keg of gunpowder holds little danger until some one puts a match into it. The analogy might be applied to currency control. So long as control is held there is no imminent danger, but when control fails chaos cannot but follow. It may be claimed that currency control is so powerful that it is invulnerable. The same claim was made once of the gold standard, and that rule of currency was shattered in night.

Not the least valuable aspect of the report issued by the League of Nations is the recognition it brings of the underlying instability of currencies despite the relative stability shown last year. The improvement in world trade and more especially the general recovery that has taken place in British domestic trade, has led to complacency regarding current difficulties. The problem is that must be solved before prosperity can be restored.

A feature of the foreign exchange to-day is the further weakening of discounts, for the French francs for three months

Foreign exchangers circles believe almost unanimously that the underlying nervousness surrounding the franc is due to fears regarding the French political situation, particularly in the next three months.

French business circles are finding themselves forced to admit that devaluation has so far not reached expectations since confidence in the franc is still lacking, which, combined with the fact that the budgetary situation is daily increasingly difficult, arouses fears that recourse to a formal capital levy may eventually be necessitated.

The uncertainty has been a major factor existing for forward Swiss francs can be traced to realisation measures taken in Switzerland to bring her currency in line with others through adoption of deflationary methods before devaluation and rendered the 30 per cent devaluation since enacted greater than necessary. Uncertainty regarding the ultimate level of devalued guilder is evinced by counts for both forward positions.

ITALIAN CAMPAIGN IN ABYSSINIA

Rome, Oct. 21.
The Italian troops, commanded by General Geloso, after 5 days of heavy fighting, penetrated further into the west of Abyssinia, occupying the Glabassero region, according to reports here from North Africa.

The leader of the Abyssinian guerrilla detachments, Deshab Al-Da'id has been killed in an action during which the Abyssinians lost several hundred dead. The Italian infantry and artillery received such effective support from the Air Force, so the report adds, that their losses are comparatively slight.

The special correspondent of the Milan paper "Corriere della Sera" reports the capture of the 2,500 metres high Dschababoi peak, east of Lake Santa Margherita.

The papers point out that with the capture of the Dschababoi mountains, the last obstacle is removed from the Italian penetration of the Province of Sidamo.

London, Oct. 2.
The German note about a Western Pact Conference has aroused optimism in London official quarters, writes the "Evening Standard," but adds that the British answer will be discussed in Cabinet on Wednesday, and will be conciliatory in tone. The great difficulty is that every new Western European agreement must have a regional character, which means the exclusion of Soviet Russia, the position of France does not permit the Paris Government to engage itself in any circumstances to attack Germany. The "Evening Standard" adds that as matters lie, England cannot do without France.

NO NEGOTIATION WITH MADRID

Unconditional Surrender Demanded

GENERAL FRANCO
CONFIDENT

"Our Movement Is On The Eve Of Triumph"

Burgos, October 21.
"Negotiation with Madrid is impossible. We insist on unconditional surrender," declared General Franco, leader of the invading forces, at an interview.

With a supremely confident bearing, General Franco said: "Our movement is on the eve of triumph. We have taken Llescas, twenty five miles from Madrid, and advanced beyond that place, invested Naval Carnero, menace Aranjuez, and dominate Escorial.

CONCERN FOR SYMPATHISERS

"The line surrounding the capital has been drawn in and fortified. In a few weeks we advanced a hundred kilometres. We could have advanced further much quicker, but we did not wish to bombard villages and towns where our sympathisers live."

General Franco denied that the insurgents ever used poison gas.

TWO LINES OF DEFENCE

Lisbon, Oct. 21.
An insurgent wireless message states that the Government has prepared two lines of defence, the first on the outskirts of Madrid where they have posted a thousand machine guns and the second inside the city where barricades and trenches have been erected.

The insurgents claim to have shot down six Government planes on the Aragon front.

ARAGON FRONT

Burgos, Oct. 21.
Renewed activity has been reported from the Aragon front, the mountain chain Alentisque, east of Saragossa having been stormed by the Nationalists, the defenders being put to flight, leaving many dead and wounded, and a quantity of war material behind.

This victory gives the Nationalists control of the entire Alcantarilla mountain range, which borders on the provinces of Huesca and Saragossa.

GOVERNMENT CLAIMS

Madrid, Oct. 21.
The Government claims two successful counter-attacks north-west of Madrid at Robledo, De Chavala and in a southward direction of Oviedo where three Government columns routed the insurgents with heavy losses.

Azana's visit to Barcelona it is stated forms part of a pretext to visit all fronts in turn.

WAR FRONT REPORTS

Murgos, Oct. 20.
The Nationalist troops operating in the Alaga sector have occupied the town of Antora on the main trunk motor road Jerez de la Frontera, according to messages received here, which however still lack official confirmation. The capture of Antora would be an important step forward in the Nationalist's advance on Malaga, as the two towns are only 40 kilometres apart.

The 5th Division reports from Huesca that the Nationalists have occupied the famous place of pilgrimage, Sandul Teria, a strategically important point on the Alameda-Tardiente road, capturing large quantities of war material from the retreating Reds in this action.

A message from Madrid announces that the Red Minister of Interior, Pezsa, has been placed in supreme charge for the defence of the capital. The report adds that the appointment is causing considerable dissatisfaction and excitement among the Marxist elements in Madrid, in view of the fact that Pezsa was formerly a member of the Guardia Civil, which is a body of crack troops and has always been the traditional object of hatred for the Reds.

Alleged Soviet Influence

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)
Burgos, Oct. 21.

Interesting revelations are being made by circles who are in a position to have accurate information, concerning the fact that Minister of Interior, Prieto is taking advantage of the reported illness of Premier Caballero to actively pursue his plans to evacuate the capital and transfer the seat of the Marxist Government from Madrid to Barcelona.

According to informed quarters the scheme would already have been carried out but for the strenuous opposition by the Soviet Russian Ambassador, Moses Rosenberg, who is in favour of defending Madrid to the utmost. In view, however, of the fall of Oviedo, it is stated that Rosenberg has dropped his opposition, and it is believed that the Government will leave Madrid before long and establish itself in Barcelona, where in conjunction with the Catalan Marxist authorities it will proclaim an independent "Soviet Republic."

AZANA'S VISIT TO BARCELONA

Radio Statements By

Paris, Oct. 21.

A radio message from Madrid states: "The Spanish President Azana is conducting important discussions in Barcelona with the President of the Catalan Generalitat, Companys on the plan of military co-operation between Madrid and Catalonia."

The Nationalist radio station in Valladolid announces that the actual object of Azana's visit to Barcelona is to make arrangements for the eventual evacuation of Madrid and removal of the Government to Barcelona.

FAMOUS DEFENDER OF OVIEDO

GIRL PAT'S ADVENTURE

George Orsborne's
Allegations

London, Oct. 20.

George Orsborne, former master of the trawler Girl Pat, who is charged, with his brother James, with stealing the little Grimsby vessel, related in Old Bailey to-day how he had navigated across the Atlantic with only a school boy's atlas.

Yesterday, when defence counsel cross-examined Mr. Tom Moore, managing director of the Marstrand Fishing Company, which owns the Girl Pat, the suggestion was made that Mr. Moore encouraged Orsborne to get rid of the ship in order to get the insurance money. Mr. Moore denied the suggestion.

To-day the defence adhered to this suggestion, and George Orsborne related several talks with his employer.

Replying to a question by Judge Singleton, he said he understood one of the company's ships was to be cast away. This witness said that after the Girl Pat left Dover he found an atlas belonging to his eldest son in his coat pocket, and that was their only chart "for the rest of the trip around the world."

He had talked with the crew off Jersey, and told them that the ship looked as though she could stand a bit of punishment. "I said we could circle round the South Atlantic and come back by the North Atlantic and leave her at Grimsby."

At Corubon a Spaniard offered him 16,000 pesetas and another ship for the Girl Pat, but he refused the offer, he said. Hearing adjourned until to-morrow.

WRONG NAME

London, Oct. 20.

The name of the managing director of the Marstrand Fishing Company, owners of the Girl Pat, who featured as a witness in yesterday's hearing of the charge of theft of the vessel against its master, was erroneously reported as John instead of Tom Moore.

Mrs. Amy Mollison suffered a broken nose and injury to her shoulder when the aeroplane in which she was flying alone from France turned over during an emergency landing in a field in Kent.

She lost her bearings in fog off Dungeness and, as darkness was approaching, decided to land. After doing so she applied the brakes to avoid running into houses around the field and overturned.

When liberated from her cabin, the airwoman's clothes were soaked with petrol, but she had switched off the engine and danger of fire was thus averted.

QUO TAI CHI'S OPINION

Geneva Talk About
The League

London, Oct. 21.

Everyone in Geneva said that China got more this year than anyone with her election seat in Council and the election of Dr. Cheng Kai-sung in succession to Dr. Wang Chung-hui as judge of the Hague Tribunal.

The Ambassador continued that there was also a Turkish candidate for the Hague Tribunal who obtained a majority of votes at the League Council. Subsequently the Assembly elected Dr. Cheng Kai-sung by a large majority. Dr. Cheng was the Chinese Commissioner at the Chinese art exhibition at Burlington House which was so highly praised.

Mr. Quo Tai-chi said that everyone in Geneva was more firmly resolved than ever that the League must triumph in spite of the recent failures. "What alternative is there," he said, "except the old system of alliances and endless armaments. Some critics of the League as being a part of the Versailles Treaty, but there is not much of Versailles left." He did not think any major reform of the Covenant is likely to eventuate.

NON-INTERVENTION IN SPAIN

SOVIET EFFORTS FOR FREE ACTION

French Press Criticism

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)

Paris, October 21.
The conversation which Foreign Minister Delbos had with the Soviet Ambassador Potemkin is given considerable prominence in the press on Wednesday.

The subject of the conversation, states the "Petit Parisien," was the step taken by Russia with regard to non-intervention in the Spanish civil war, and the eventuality of Soviet Russia withdrawing from the neutrality pact and assuming freedom of action. France, the paper states, is, like Britain, still opposed to any interference in Spain.

"If times were not too serious to laugh, one would have to laugh at the efforts being made by the Soviet Government," writes the "Figaro." "If the paper continues, there was any country which ought to keep silent, this country is Soviet Russia. It is not only a matter of the munitions which are arriving in great quantities at Bilbao, but of the part played by the Soviet Ambassador in Madrid, Rosenberg, who must be regarded as the real power behind the Madrid Government."

vention agreement has been handed to the Foreign office by the Spanish Ambassador. It is believed a number of specific charges are made, including one to the effect that large numbers of tanks and 100 flame-throwers from Italy were landed at Cadix on October 15. It is also charged that a German ship, believed to be a destroyer, landed anti-aircraft guns at Algeiras on October 17.

Reuter.

SOVIET ATTITUDE

Moscow, Oct. 20.

While it is regarded as unlikely that the Soviet will decide to withdraw from the non-intervention pact before the meeting of the International Spanish Non-Intervention Committee in London, political circles are pessimistic with regard to the committee's intention or ability to satisfy the Soviet demands and predict that an early withdrawal will be followed by an arrangement to supply the Madrid Government's forces with material of war.

Meanwhile, official encouragement is being given to thousands of workers' meetings, held under the slogan: "Rush ammunition to Spain unless Fascist intervention is stopped."

Placards announce that millions of roubles are pouring in to trade union funds for the purpose of purchasing food and clothing for the Spanish civilians.

Foreign observers here believe the Soviet is unlikely to despatch troops and arms to Spain owing to the fear of precipitating an international conflagration. It is thought more likely that if the non-intervention pact is abrogated Russia will purchase ammunition in other countries, from which it will be sent to Spain.

AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP
OF CHINANew Golfing Record Made By
A. Ricketts

Shanghai, October 18.
A Ricketts, of the Hungtiao Golf Club, leads the field in the first day's play of the Amateur Open Golf Championship of China, over thirty-six holes on the Hungtiao course, with a score of 145. K. M. Cumming of the same club is next with 148. B. Kan of the Shanghai Golf Club, a close third with 150 and J. A. Williamson, also S.G.C., is fourth with 159, states the "North China Daily News".

Ricketts in his morning round broke the course record made by N. A. Brown in last year's championship, of 72, with a magnificent 67. In the afternoon he took 78 for the round. K. M. Cumming played exceptionally steady golf and had two rounds of 74. Bobbie Kan did not do so well in the morning rounds, taking 78 but in the afternoon playing good golf, he had an excellent round of 72. J. A. Williamson, the Shanghai Golf Club's champion, played well below his form, with a 78 and an 81 for the two rounds.

Conditions yesterday morning were ideal for golf, with the course in splendid shape and the wind giving hardly any trouble. In the afternoon the wind increased, causing the majority to force their shots, and was the cause of a good deal of trouble.

To-day's play at Seekingjiao should see a great struggle between the leaders especially between Ricketts and Kan, with the former strongly favoured to win the championship.

A. Ricketts played faultless golf in the morning round, when he broke the course record with a magnificent 67, two below par. He started off by taking the first two holes in par, at the third he was one over, at the fourth he was par. He then took the next five holes in three, getting an eagle at the eighth, when he had a splendid drive, a wonderful brassie shot onto the green and holed out his putt.

Coming home he was one over par at the tenth, he then took the next five holes in par, 4,4,3,4,5. At the sixteenth he had a hurdle too and took the last two holes with par fours.

In the afternoon round his tee, brassie and iron shots for the most part were excellent, he also made some wonderful recovery shots, but his putting let him down. He was three putts on most of the greens.

Bobbie Kan in the morning round was out in 37, two over par but was seven over par coming home with a 41, with 78 for the round. In the afternoon he had a splendid round of 72, equalling the old record made by N. A. Brown last year.

H.K.S.R.A. Defeat Fusiliers
By Convincing Margin

On Tuesday, the H.K. Bde. H.K.S.R.A., beat the Royal Welch Fusiliers at Sham Shui Po by 8 goals to 3. The first ten minutes saw the players settling down, and after that play was fast and keen. Lt. Garthwaite made a welcome return to the H.K.S. side, and scored several goals. The H.K.S. forwards and halves combined well, and by three-quarter time were leading by 7 to 0.

The Royal Welch then made a very fine rally, and scored 4 goals, one of which was not seen by the umpire owing to the falling light which rather spoilt the last five minutes of the game.

HUGHIE GALLACHER
MOVES AGAIN

Hughie Gallacher, one time idol of Chelsea, the greatest centre forward since the war in the opinion of many, was recently transferred from Derby County to Notts County.

One of the most discussed footballers of modern years, Gallacher, who has seen service with Derby County, Chelsea, Newcastle United and Aldershot, has cost well over £20,000 in transfer fees.

He joined Newcastle United from Aldershot in 1925 at a fee of £6,000. Five years later Chelsea paid Newcastle a fee of £10,000, and Chelsea, in turn, received a sum of roughly £3,500 from Derby County.

This season he has been coaching the Derby Colts' team. Doncaster Rovers paid the biggest fee in the history of the club for the services of Albert Malin, the Huddersfield Town inside right.

COUNTY GOLF
CHAMPIONSHIPFull Description Of Day's Play

Surrey, with two grand slams, sound as if they had an easy time in the County Finals recently. Actually there were some rare tussles in the Lancashire match, and it would have taken little enough to turn the whole result the other way states the "Morning Post."

It was a perfect day for golf, with a grey sky and practically no wind. Some spectators were cautious enough to say the golf was not so impeccable as it should have been, but if so they did not watch Miss Bridget Newell or Miss Diana Fishwick, both of whom were as good as gold. It would be easy to say that with a 6 and 5 win it was not difficult for Miss Fishwick to play well, but as a matter of fact Mrs. Morant was always hard on her heels, forcing the Surrey player to put chips dead for birdies to get home. She was doing this supremely well all day and won more distinction at it than in her greater command of the long game, which has come after some lessons from Fred Robson. Her approach certainly was the reason for her wins.

MISS NEWELL IMPRESSIVE

In the other top morning match Miss Newell was really impressive. She was out in 36 and, even then, two long putts had gone into the hole only to come out again. Miss Berry had been hanging on now and again with a good recovery. The two short holes after the turn she played perfectly and won them both. Then, by good putting, she halved the next five, all in par figures except the 16th, a famous hole which extracted six. If Miss Newell has gained in straightness and control, so has Derbyshire's second strength, Miss Craddock-Hartopp, in length. She had Miss Corlett consistently playing the odd, and it was mainly the beautiful putting of the Lancashire player that kept her on terms. Miss Hartopp was 3 up at the 6th, square at the 10th, where Miss Corlett chipped dead, but won on the 16th, having taken the homeward holes in one under 4's.

With such a good start, Derbyshire's hopes rose, but illness had depleted their team, and they could not quite win the needful fourth match.

Miss Fishwick began badly against Miss Berry after lunch, but the holing of a four-yard putt to halve the 4th put fresh life into

HOME RUGBY

Australian
Ex-Students'
XV. On Tour

An Australian ex-students' team the King's School, Paramatta embraces many of the big Rugby-playing schools, and will bring a new interest to the play this season, states a Home paper. The Australians arrived in London on October 2 in the P. and O. liner Strathaird.

The team, which comprises twenty-three players, is in charge of Mr. R. A. O. Martin, solicitor, an old King's School boy himself, and son of the Acting Minister of Justice for New South Wales.

The King's School is the oldest great Public School in Australia, and was founded by Bishop Broughton, of the King's School, Canterbury, England, 1832. Bishop Broughton was the first Bishop of Australia.

The following school or college XV's will be met in England and Scotland: King's School, Canterbury, Oct. 15; Haileybury, Oct. 20; Merchant Taylor's, Oct. 22; Jesus (Cambridge), Oct. 26; Clifton, Oct. 31; Marlborough, Nov. 3; Balliol, Nov. 7; Badley, Nov. 11; Bedford, Nov. 17; Uppingham, Nov. 24; Oundle, Nov. 26; Pettes, Dec. 2; Edinburgh Academy, Dec. 7; Cranleigh, Dec. 9; Wellington (Berks), Dec. 12; Rugby, Dec. 15; Cheltenham, Dec. 17.

her chipping, and her putting continued more than passing good. One up at the turn, she quickly ran to four up.

MISS CORLETT FIGHTS BACK
Miss Gourlay turned two up against Miss Corlett, whose game somehow seemed to lack sting, but the Lancashire player pulled back the lead, and Surrey supporters were torn between watching that match and the finish of Miss Hamilton and Mrs. Newton. Miss Hamilton had been 1 down at the 10th. By the end of the 15th she was 2 up, and though they were square going to the 18th, everything looked as good as ever in her favour when Mrs. Newton bunkered her second at the green, and only just escaped staying in the trouble. Having emerged, Mrs. Newton then holed her chip for the half in 4. At the 19th, Miss Hamilton's putt for a 2 sat on the lip. Mrs. Newton rammed in a four-yarder for the half at the 21st. It was Surrey's turn to get down in one putt, and the struggle only ended at the short 23rd, where Mrs. Newton was away to the right of the green.

benevolent smile, your paternal advice, your "savoir faire," and especially the sonorous voice that resounded in every corner of our beautiful church when you delivered those short, impressive, and eloquent sermons.

FR. MAESTRINI'S WORK

During your absence the onerous duties fell on the shoulders of Fr. Maestrini, who, rising to the occasion, carried far and wide the spark of enthusiasm kindled by you. Besides his arduous duties of pastor of souls he found time to introduce in our parish conferences of St. Vincent de Paul.

The 3rd Order of St. Francis de Assisti.

Establishment of Street Sleepers Society.

St. Francis School for Poor Boys, St. Anthony's bread.

Chinese Catholic Young Ladies Association.

13th Troop of Boy Scouts, Active Unit Service.

The Parochial Hall and Public lending library.

These are a few of the manifestations of his intense activity and outstanding powers of organisation. I often wondered how a frame so delicate could develop so much enthusiasm and energy. I, therefore, take this opportunity of publicly testifying to our deep appreciation, and tender our thanks to Fr. Maestrini for all he did for us. I know Fr. Maestrini's modesty will be shocked by the very mention of his pious works, but we all get our shocks when we least expect them. In his case they are very well deserved, at any rate. We speak in fullness of our appreciation of his invaluable ministry for our benefit.

EXPRESSION OF ESTEEM

Fr. Granelli will forgive us for this our very modest expression of sympathy, but what is lacking in outward display is profusely supplied by our cordial and affectionate welcome.

Looking back these past eighteen months, we can recall our deep anxiety for your health and how our fervent prayers went up to the Almighty for your speedy recovery. From this distance we have followed with the keenest interest and concern the progress of your recovery.

We feel grateful that we can now offer our thanks with the liveliest satisfaction that you are once more in our midst, and we ardently hope that there will be no more relapses in your health, but that you will continue to spread the blessing of your ministry and the charm of your outstanding personality which endears to you anyone who comes in contact with you. We pray, in conclusion, that you may henceforth enjoy the best of health and vigour. These are the sincerest wishes and the expression of heartfelt esteem, love and consideration from your parishioners, on whose behalf it is my privilege to be able to address this gathering.

THE FATHER BLUSHES!

While Dr. B. de Sousa was speaking, Rev. Fr. Granelli blushed now and again, followed by a broad smile.

Rev. Fr. Granelli thanked Dr. de Sousa for his expressions of esteem and then said in a joking manner that they were all lies.

He said that he was not in the mood to give a speech but thanked everyone who were present for their kind reception in welcoming him.

He thanked all his friends who wrote letters to him and said he took weeks to read them and that it was impossible to answer them. Fr. Maestrini, who had officiated in his absence was a wonderful priest and had worked wonders. "I am still on holiday but I will be in Hong Kong," said Fr. Granelli. "I will stay in La Salle College but I will come down every day, if possible to St. Theresa's Church and help Fr. Maestrini with his good work. Although I am on holiday, I am still a parishioner. My doctor's orders were not to work too hard and I intend to keep it."

With a still broader smile and a cheerful look on his face he shook hands with all his friends and thanked them again.

Light refreshments were served during the reception, and pictures were taken following the proceedings.

Among those present were: Dr. and Mrs. B. de Sousa, Dr. Castro Basto, Dr. Fehly, Mr. Leo D'Almada a Castro, Chey. H. Dixon, Chey. J. M. Alves, Rev. Fr. Gallagher, Rev. Fr. Maestrini, Rev. Fr. Olande, Rev. Fr. Liberatou, Rev. Fr. Ryan and many others.

"RECKLESS ALLEGATIONS"

and pushed her back and then put his hand over her mouth. She struggled but could not offer much resistance as her back was resting against some stones.

GIRL DISTRESSED

Following the alleged incident the girl was in great pain and distress. She was so indignant that she took all the money that Morgan had, which was 65 cents, from his pocket. She did not know what to do and she wanted to commit suicide by Morgan's restraint her from doing so. They then walked down the hill, Morgan walking ahead. The girl finally returned to the hut on the beach and got dressed. She told Morgan that she was going to report him to the police. She went to the Shamshui Police Station where she made a report to Inspector Chester Woods. She was crying and very excited. She was sent to the Kowloon Hospital where she was examined by Dr. Ng.

ACCUSED'S STATEMENT

Accused was traced and at the police station he made a voluntary statement. He stated that the girl invited him to go up the hill and she forced him to do what-ever he did. He gave her 60 cents.

On September 30, Morgan was formally charged and in reply to the charge said that he took the girl to be a prostitute. He had known her for ten days and had taken her to the cinema and had given her money.

Mr. Williams submitted that if the jury accepted the girl's story they would find that even if she had been foolish she was not wanton and did not consent.

Dr. Y. K. Ng, of the Kowloon Hospital, commenced his evidence by saying that the girl was very excited and was in tears as she related her story.

Mr. D'Almada: Are you reading your evidence?

His Lordship (to witness): You are only entitled to use contemporaneous notes and no others. Put your notes away.

Dr. Ng continuing, described his examination and added that he did not examine the girl's back.

Cross-examined by counsel for the defence, witness said that he had been qualified as a doctor for three years. He had examined eight cases of alleged rape in the Colony. He agreed with counsel's reference in Taylor's Medical Jurisprudence that in eleven out of twelve cases of this nature the girl's complaints were fabrications.

CAPABLE OF RESISTANCE

Witness agreed that the girl was quite capable of putting up stout resistance. It was extremely difficult for one man to commit rape unassisted. Except for the redness on the thighs he found nothing inconsistent with consent.

The girl then gave evidence at the conclusion of which, Mr. D'Almada said that, at this stage, it would be fair enough to ask the jury if they wished to continue with the case.

His Lordship directed the jury as to their powers for so doing. After consultation, the foreman of the jury announced that five members did not wish to continue and two wanted to continue.

Cross-examined by Mr. D'Almada the girl stated that she had been friendly with the accused and his friends.

Witness added that she sometimes resided with her adopted grandmother's aunt.

Referring to the incident on September 18, witness, replying to further questions, stated that she never thought of running away.

Mr. D'Almada: You consented to every one of the defendant's actions on that day?

Witness: If I was willing why should I come and prosecute him?

AIR TRAFFIC REGULATED BY RADIO

Each "square" would be linked with the next one by direct teleprinter lines, and it would be possible under such a plan to "move" an aeroplane from one end of the country to the other without its ever being out of touch with a ground station, which is already in possession of information about the movements of other aircraft within the same area. The Maybury Committee's terms of reference are:

"To consider and report upon measures which might be adopted by His Majesty's Government or by local authorities for assisting in the promotion of civil aviation in the United Kingdom and their probable cost. The Committee will take into account the requirements of the Post Office for air mails and the relation between aviation and other forms of transport."

It is clear, therefore, that, if the Maybury Committee recommend the "chess board" system, it will still remain for the Government to decide whether to adopt it. But already the pressure upon the existing wireless stations is such that some sort of nation-wide means of controlling and watching over the movements of aircraft is needed.

The stationing of Control Officers at all busy aerodromes throughout the country is already being considered by the Air Ministry, and a move is to be made in this direction in the near future. This would open the way to the adoption of the chess board scheme.

SALE OF WORK

Kowloon Union Women's Guild weekly meeting was held yesterday morning at the Church Hall. Later in the morning they discussed particulars regarding the Sale of Work to be held on November 7.

The following are the officials: President, Mrs. J. D. MacLean, Vice-President, Mrs. B. Wylie, Hon. Secretary, Mrs. F. Short, Hon. Treasurer, Mrs. H. H. Scott.

Novelty stalls, side-shows, ice cream and refreshments will be obtainable at the Sale of Work. No charge will be made for admission. Later in the evening there will be a Whist Drive.

stated that Morgan was surprised when he was told of the girl's allegations. He was not nervous or frightened.

Mr. D'Almada submitted that there was no case to go to the jury.

Mr. Williams submitted that there was corroboration by the mere fact that the girl had bruises.

JUDGE'S COMMENT

His Lordship: I am quite satisfied that on the evidence I would not be justified in leaving this case to the jury. There is no charge easier to bring than one such as this and there is no case more difficult to meet and the law has very wisely ordained as a rule of practice that there must be corroboration. The girl's evidence is a mass of contradiction and she has told such a story as no person with ordinary intelligence could accept as a girl who had lost her virginity on the hillside.

His Lordship then formally directed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty, which was done.

Discharging Morgan, his Lordship explained that he was not going to say whether the case should have been brought but it was in the best interest of everybody, particularly the accused person, that when serious allegations such as these are made that they be heard before a jury of fellow citizens of the accused.
